Hi Dawn! Best of luck being a leader in this difficult time. (Can I buy you a drink and just listen, sometime? :) I assume - and hope - that Sean Spicer is no longer in the Naval Reserves, or at least inactivated. While I was at JCS, he was trying to get a job there and I advised against it because he was RNC spokesman at the time. I told him why, and he understood. Seriously though...can I buy you a drink? Anytime, anywhere. Thinking of you, Vr, (b) (6)
